Norwegian launches new route from London Gatwick

Norwegian continues to expand its route network. The Greek island of Kefalonia is a new destination from Norwegian's UK base at London Gatwick. The new route commences in April.

Norwegian continues to expand internationally. From its base at London Gatwick, Norwegian launches a direct flight to the Greek island of Kefalonia, a destination that many of Norwegian's UK passengers have requested. The new route commences April 18.

“We see that our UK customers appreciate Norwegian’s large route network, low fares, new aircraft, free inflight WiFi and friendly service on board. We are pleased to offer Kefalonia as a new destination from London,” said Chief Commercial Officer Thomas Ramdahl at Norwegian.

Norwegian Air Shuttle ASA, commercially branded “Norwegian”, is a low-cost airline listed on the Oslo Stock Exchange. Norwegian is the second largest airline in Scandinavia and third largest low cost carrier in Europe. Close to 24 million passengers fly on its network per year. Norwegian has a route portfolio that stretches across Europe into North Africa and the Middle East, as well as long-haul flights to the US and Southeast Asia. The company has a total of 421 routes to 129 destinations and employs approximately 4,500 people in Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Estonia, UK, Spain and Thailand. The company has 258 undelivered aircraft on firm order. Norwegian was founded in 1993 and its headquarter is in Fornebu, Norway. Norwegian offers better leg room than most competitors, in-flight WiFi on short haul, world-class punctuality and a fleet of 102 aircraft with an average age of only 4.8 years. In 2013 and 2014, Norwegian was voted Europe’s best low-cost carrier of the year by the renowned SkyTrax World Airline Awards. In 2014, Norwegian also won three prizes at the prestigious Passenger Choice Awards for Best Airline in Europe, Best Inflight Connectivity & Communications and Best Single Achievement in Passenger Experience for its moving map on the 787 Dreamliners. In addition, Norwegian was awarded Europe's best low-cost airline by AirlineRatings.com for the second year running.
