The pilot strike continues Friday – almost all domestic flights in Scandinavia are cancelled tomorrow

Norwegian's passengers will again be affected by the pilot strike. Tomorrow, Friday, nearly 35,000 passengers will be affected. Almost all domestic flights in Norway, Sweden and Denmark will be cancelled due to the strike. This also applies to flights between the Scandinavian capitals. Long-haul flights between Scandinavia/England and USA, and Scandinavia and Thailand will not be affected by the pilot strike. Norwegian will do everything possible to ensure that flights between other parts of Europe continue as normal.

Passengers who have registered their mobile phone numbers on their Norwegian profiles, and who are affected by the strike, will be notified via SMS from Norwegian. We urge all passengers to keep themselves updated via Norwegian's website and check the Flight Status for information on specific routes.✉

Customers affected by cancellations may call our customer service on +47 21 49 21 49.✉

Norwegian would like to apologise to all passengers who are affected by cancellations. We will continue to do everything we can to ensure that our passengers will be as little affected as possible due to the pilot strike.

We wish to advise that the following flights should operate according to schedule tomorrow, Friday 6 March 2015:

- Flights to/from the UK with flight numbers DY2400 to DY2900
- Flights to/from Spain with flight numbers DY5100 to DY5598

- Flights to/from Finland with flight numbers DY5599 to 5999

- Flights to/from USA and Thailand with flight numbers DY7001 to DY7999

Norwegian Air Shuttle ASA, commercially branded “Norwegian”, is a low-cost airline listed on the Oslo Stock Exchange. Norwegian is the second largest airline in Scandinavia and third largest low cost carrier in Europe. The company reported its highest ever passenger figures in a single year with almost 24 million passengers in 2014. Norwegian has a route portfolio that stretches across Europe into North Africa and the Middle East, as well as long-haul flights to the US and Southeast Asia. The company has a total of 424 routes to 130 destinations and employs approximately 4,500 people in Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Estonia, UK, Spain and Thailand. The company has 258 undelivered aircraft on firm order. Norwegian was founded in 1993 and its headquarter is in Fornebu, Norway. Norwegian offers better leg room than most competitors, in-flight WiFi on short haul, world-class punctuality and a fleet of 96 aircraft with an average age of only four years. In 2013 and 2014, Norwegian was voted Europe's best low-cost carrier of the year by the renowned SkyTrax World Airline Awards. In 2014, Norwegian also won three prizes at the prestigious Passenger Choice Awards for Best Airline in Europe, Best Inflight Connectivity & Communications and Best Single Achievement in Passenger Experience for its moving map on the 787 Dreamliners. In addition, Norwegian was awarded Europe's best low-cost airline by AirlineRatings.com for the second year running.
