Norwegian voted “Best Low-Cost Airline of the World”

Norwegian has been voted “Best Low-Cost Airline of the World” by the 2014 Air Transport News Awards, which was held in Istanbul, Turkey, yesterday evening.

“We are honored to receive this award. This is an important recognition and I would like thank our passengers and the jury who have given Norwegian such great references. I would also like to thank all the employees at Norwegian, who every day of the year do their utmost for our passengers. The award ‘Low-Cost Airline of the Year’ is proof that brand new planes, friendly service and low fares are greatly appreciated,” said Norwegian’s CEO Bjørn Kjos.

It is the readers of the Air Transport News that have voted for Norwegian to become “Best Low-Cost Airline of the World” and a jury of international industry experts who have chosen Norwegian to be the winner of this year’s prize.
