Term loan financing committed for first seven aircraft

Norwegian Air Shuttle ASA has mandated US lender, Private Export Funding Corporation (PEFCO), supported by the Export-Import Bank of the United States (EXIM), to provide term loan financing for the first seven of its direct-buy, new Boeing 737-800 HGW aircraft, to be delivered between Summer 2009 and Winter 2010. EXIM has on 31. July issued a final commitment for the seven aircraft, and preliminary commitment to further support up to 20 of the scheduled aircraft deliveries between 2011 and 2012.
